

Seafood Buffs Praise Marineland's Dishes

Ahoy! Featuring a wide choice of delectable dishes from the deep, Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes continues to win favor from seafood connoisseurs whose every whim is gratified by Chef Dutch Holland and his staff of culinarians.

Besides catering to the fish fancier, Marineland Restaurant also pampers the appetites of discerning landlubbers. Continental and American dishes, charcoal-broiled steaks and other meat specialties, are magnificently prepared with equal artistry. Most notably are roast prime ribs of beef, double French lamb chops and the elegantly served pan-fried or broiled spring chicken.

Marineland Restaurant, an institution easy to praise, features excellent food at moderate cost. If you're unfamiliar with its excitingly new menu, don't waste a moment in making its acquaintance. The short drive is a small inconvenience for such rewarding cuisine and dinner surroundings.

Hit Tune Composer Now Here

Dusty Rhodes, composer of many hit tunes, including "The Object of My Affection," "You Won't Be Satisfied," "Dream Walking," and a former performer with top bands of the nation, opens a new show tonight at the "House of Reilly," at 18114 S. Western Ave.

In retirement for eight years, Dusty decided he missed the thrills of entertaining and returned to the glow of the spotlight.

During his fabulous career, he appeared with the Ted Weems Orchestra and the Lady Esther Serenade Orchestra.

Joining him at the local "House of Reilly" are Alton Purinell at the piano, Bell Nino on trumpet, and Jay Bergman on drums.

New owners of the "House of Reilly," Momma, Dad and Todd Shedd, will be on hand to help Dusty open his show tonight.
